

DISCORD INSTRUCTIONS

The Wavy Tunnel PRO Desk is using Discord to communicate and collaborate with our members. If you are a member, you will have access to a private channel where trades will be posted, and ideas will be discussed. We encourage you to participate in order to get the most out of your membership.

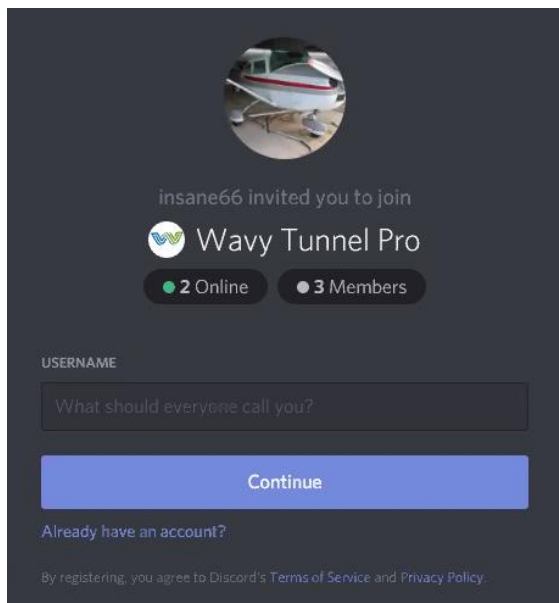

You will also receive your trade alerts through Discord so we recommend that you download this on your desktop and phone for immediate notifications for trades. The first step is to set it up on your computer and once you have your login, you can download the app on your phone and use your login credentials.

Instructions to Join:

1. Click on the following link:
